Below this, there are sections for 'Positive Votes' (12,712 (67%)) and 'Negative Votes' (10,325 (33%)). A list of voters is shown, including 'Kim Bowen' and 'Jimmy Hardy'. There are 'Yes' and 'No' buttons for voting. The main content area features a large image of a character (a green monkey-like creature wearing a white sailor's cap and sunglasses) and a block of text that is mostly illegible but appears to be a petition description. At the bottom, there is a 'Start Petition of your own' button with a subtext: 'This petition starter stood up and took action. Will you do the same?'.

Within the LooBr DAO system investors and users will be able to use their own ideas and propose them to the platform. Together with everyone we are able to adjust LooBr™ the way we want and improve its usability and attractiveness.

The DAO voting structure will be explained in detail in the next few weeks. For the voting and to create proposals, a person has to hold MR token.

Join us and get your interesting ideas into our platform!

LooBr™ MysteryBox

The LooBr™ Mystery Box consists of various packages that can be used within the Ruffy World™ . Allowing people to open packages and enjoy virtual perks. Furthermore, mystery boxes have the potential to give its buyers land plots in high traffic area.

Mystery Boxes will be released soon for a very affordable price.

LooBrTM Score We set a new standard.

With LooBrTM, you do not simply buy an NFT; you purchase its entire history.

A unique LooBrTM feature transfers all the statistical data collected, such as trade history, likes, comments, replies, and social media interactions from the initial NFT minting. Each aspect is given a value, which along with the owner's score, composes each NFT's unique LooBr Score.

After purchase, you can re-list or exhibit your NFT, knowing that the LooBr score does not only remain with it but continues collecting and adding data for as long as you own it.
